Kevin Gibbons for contributions to TC39

Throughout his tenure as editor, Kevin has demonstrated exceptional dedication, technical leadership, and commitment to the collaborative development of ECMAScript. He has consistently engaged across the full breadth of the committee's work, contributing inputs and helping guide discussions.

Kevin's ability to remain involved across a wide range of topics, has made him an invaluable member of the committee. His perspective, collaborative spirit, and engagement have helped strengthen the effectiveness of the committee, and his approach welcomes participants from all backgrounds and skill levels.

Kevin's work is reflected in his leadership, dedication and the lasting impact of his contributions.

ISO/IEC JTC 1 Recognition for Ecma's 65th Anniversary

- Acknowledgment of Ecma's long-standing impact, played a pivotal role for over six decades in advancing global ICT and CE standards.
- Celebration of a 39-year partnership JTC 1 highlights the productive cooperation with Ecma, including earlier engagement with ISO/TC 97.
- Appreciation for Ecma's timely, industry-driven collaboration which has strengthened the development and adoption of foundational technologies.
- Commitment to continued collaboration JTC 1 looks forward to working together on standards that will support tomorrow's technologies.

- First edition published in 1997, creating the foundational specification, interoperable across all browsers.
- 2016–Present: Annual release cadence, ensuring incremental evolution and rapid delivery of new features.
- Members are from diverse fields, industry, academia, and research; including the open-source communities.

Planning:

 - Dates and locations?
- Other items
 - Swag
 - Blog

Focus Areas

- Membership in targeted segments
- Identify and develop new work areas
- Collaborations with external organisations

Benefits to consider:

- Professional Development Units (PDUs): gives individuals professional credentials

This may convince management to support the engagement of their staff in standards activities such participating and contributing to TC/TG, drafting, presenting papers or other related activities

Visibility to add:

- Blog - Insight they can't get elsewhere
- Social Media - LinkedIn
- Engagement initiatives - building interest and highlighting why involvement matters

Will these initiatives drive engagement?

- Do you feel that offering PDUs would make participation more appealing or professionally valuable?
- Would increasing visibility, through blogs, LinkedIn posts, or highlighting contributions encourage more engagement? (To the appropriate audience)

Will these initiatives help attract new members?

- Do you think these initiatives make Ecma more attractive to potential new members?
- What additional value or support would help convince management to invest in membership or participation?

What alternatives or improvements would you suggest?

- If these initiatives don't fully resonate, what would you propose instead?
- Is there a type of engagement or communication you feel is missing?

To ensure a fair and balanced standards process, to avoid communication issues and unhappiness, and to promote inclusiveness.

This Code of Conduct is enforced within all spaces managed by TC39. This includes chat rooms and forums moderated by TC39, issue trackers on projects hosted by TC39, and TC39 events and meetings.

We are a community of professionals, and we conduct ourselves professionally. Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other participants. Harassment and other exclusionary behaviour are not acceptable.

- Be respectful
- Be friendly and patient
- Be inclusive
- Be considerate
- Be careful in the words that you choose

When we disagree, try to understand why

- Ecma Invited Experts shall be a very small number of experts, who are needed to complete the Ecma work and whose contributions are regarded as exceptionally important. They participate free of charge in the work of a TC (including face-to-face meetings) on invitation by Ecma in an Ecma TC and may contribute to an Ecma standard.
- With Ecma Invited Experts there is no intention whatsoever to introduce a non-paying individual membership category. Therefore, Invited Experts in Ecma work should be regarded as exceptional and rare. It is encouraged that instead of Invited Experts the company / organization with whom the invited expert is affiliated with (if he has such relationship) becomes Ecma Member itself.

From Ecma Rules 6.2.6

- Individuals can participate in the work of a TC as invited experts. They participate only at the invitation of the SG at the request of the TC. They have no voting rights. Invited experts shall comply with the Ecma policies and sign the appropriate form before participating. The invitation to participate may be withdrawn by the SG at any time.

Thank you
